

Dematerialisation of Shares

To dematerialise the shares held in physical form, in the first place the shareholder need to have a demat account with a depository participant (DP) registered with either NSDL or CDSL. The list of DPs registered with NSDL and CDSL is available on their respective websites.

Shareholders are requested to refer the following webpages of NSDL and CDSL for the process of dematerialisation of shares:

<https://nsdl.co.in/services/demat.php>

<https://www.cdslindia.com/downloads/faq/Demat%20CDSL%20Way%20-%20V%20-%20Dematerialization.pdf>